Alexandra is a member of our Litigation practice group. She joined the firm as a first-year summer student and completed her articles with TGF. Alexandra works across a range of matters at all stages of the litigation process, including complex corporate/commercial and infrastructure disputes. Prior to rejoining TGF as an associate, Alexandra served as a judicial law clerk at the Federal Court of Canada, where she clerked for the Associate Judges of the Court.

Alexandra graduated from Osgoode Hall Law School, where she completed a specialization in Litigation, Dispute Resolution and the Administration of Justice and was highly engaged in the student community. She served as President of the Osgoode Mooting Society and the Osgoode Society for Civil Litigation. She was the Managing Editor of TheCourt.ca. In recognition of her leadership and contributions to the Osgoode community, she was awarded a Dean's Gold Key. Throughout law school, Alexandra distinguished herself as a competitive mooter, earning numerous accolades, including Top Oralist at the Canadian National Rounds of the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot, the world's largest moot court competition, Top Oralist at the Baby Gale Cup, and Champion of the Lerner's Cup.

Alexandra brings a thoughtful and creative approach to problem-solving and a commitment to excellence to every client matter. Her varied experiences during and after law school fostered her ability to think on her feet, engage deeply with complex legal issues, and critically assess arguments from multiple perspectives. These experiences continue to inform her approach to litigation and client service, making her a valuable member of the TGF team.
