Stephanie is an associate practicing within the firm's Restructuring & Insolvency group. She is a valuable member of the team advising on complex domestic and cross-border corporate restructurings and has experience acting for debtor companies, court officers, creditors, and other stakeholders in both formal restructuring proceedings and out-of-court matters.

Stephanie is known for her calm and proactive approach, and her ability to build strong relationships across the insolvency and asset-based lending industries. She is active in the restructuring community as a member of the Turnaround Management Association, where she serves on both the NextGen and Network of Women Committees. She is also committed to mentorship and supports students and junior associates.

Stephanie is also a dedicated legal writer, having co-authored various articles, and a chapter on Canadian restructuring law. Prior to joining TGF, Stephanie articulated and practiced as an associate at a full-service national law firm.

Stephanie earned her LL.B. from the University of Warwick, where she was active in the Warwick Law Society and participated in student legal initiatives.
