Tucker is an associate in our Litigation group and is involved with a number of the firm's infrastructure mandates. She approaches all client mandates with intellectual rigour, careful research and sophisticated strategy. She enjoys finding solutions to complex legal problems and appreciates the importance of a true connection with the client.

During law school, Tucker excelled in oral advocacy competitions. In her second year, she distinguished herself as an oralist and was awarded top oralist of the Lerner's LLP Cup. Tucker went on to represent Western Law at the Wilson Moot as both an oralist and a coach, sharpening her advocacy skills.

Prior to attending law school, Tucker trained as a classical singer at Wilfrid Laurier University. Her performance experiences developed her creative thinking, communication skills and ability to command a room. Tucker brings these skills to her work as an advocate where she takes a measured and thoughtful approach to intricate matters.

Tucker is a committed team member, known for her diligence, drive and forward-thinking.
