Andrew Hanrahan is an associate whose skills perfectly encompass both of TGF's practice areas: restructuring/insolvency and commercial litigation. With eight years of prior experience practicing as a U.S. attorney with the New York office of an international law firm, Andrew's work to date has focused on complex commercial litigation, including bankruptcy/insolvency litigation, securities class actions, internal investigations, and mergers and acquisitions litigation. He brings this experience to TGF where he will continue to build and expand his practice, including on cross-border restructuring and litigation matters where TGF enjoys recognition as a leading firm in Canada.

Andrew was recognized by the New York State Bar Association as an Empire State Counsel honoree for his pro bono contributions in 2015 and 2017.

Andrew was called to the Bar of New York (2010) and the Bar of Ontario (2019).

Professional Involvement

Andrew maintains an active pro bono practice, including previously representing indigent individuals facing federal criminal charges in the Southern District of New York, representing clients asserting housing discrimination claims before the New York City Commission on Human Rights, and representing low-income tenants in housing court eviction proceedings.

In 2015, Andrew completed a four-month externship with Mobilization for Justice, a legal services organization in New York City offering pro bono legal assistance to low income residents.
