

Tamara Markovic

tmarkovic@tgf.ca
416.304.0601

Education

- + J.D. (University of Western Ontario, Faculty of Law), 2016
- + H.B.A. (Ivey School of Business), 2016

Publications

- + 2019 & 2020
Contributing writer, 'Annual Survey of Recent Developments in Civil Procedure', in Watson and McGowan's Ontario Civil Practice, Carswell

Tamara Markovic is an associate in the litigation group at Thornton Grout Finnigan. Tamara's litigation experience includes advocating on behalf of clients in estate, commercial, class action, construction, professional negligence, employment, injunctive relief and product liability related matters. She has acted for a range of clients including individuals, corporations, government bodies, and professionals. Tamara has appeared as counsel before all levels of the Ontario courts.

Before becoming a lawyer, Tamara completed four internships at one of Canada's leading financial institutions where she worked as a capital markets financial analyst and as a procurement analyst. Her financial background allows her to understand client's concerns from a business perspective, converse with experts with ease, and readily assist the court in understanding complex financial transactions.

Prior to working at TGF, Tamara worked at a prominent litigation boutique in Toronto.

Professional Involvement

At Western Law, Tamara volunteered as an associate caseworker at Community Legal Services, a legal aid clinic at Western University offering legal services to members of the London & Middlesex County community.

Tamara is currently a member of:

- + The Ontario Bar Association
- + The Advocates' Society
- + The Toronto Lawyers' Association